CORPORATE DISSOLUTION.

Petition Filed by Ogden-Goldfield Mining Company.

The Orden-Goldfield Mining company

The Ogden-Goldfield Mining company today filed a petition for corporate dissolution in the District court. The petition sets out that on April 18 the dissolution was resolved upon; that the capital stock of the corporation was fifty shares of the par value of $200 each; that Amos Schring, C. V. Zino, J. M. Zino, S. L. Ives and C. H. Hussey constitute the entire board of directors; that all claims and demands against the corporation are satisfied and discharged.

The purpose of the proposal lies entirely in that the properties were held and operated under lease. The company was organized a year sgo, to operate the claims in Goldfield and obtained a lease for one year. The lease cannot be renewed hence the dissolution.

There were but fifty shares in the company and these were all sold in Ogden, the price charged being $30 per share. D. G. Zino of Ogden, who secured the lease, retained 25 per cent of the original lease and, in addition, bought some of the shares in the new company, which he promoted.

It is not often that the shareholders in a company have reaped such sensational dividends. Each share of the stock has paid $1000 in the year. In addition to this sum, young Zinn, who found and acquired the lease and who promoted the tense and who promoted the one-fourth interest which he retained for himself. A pleasant feature of the transaction is the fact that Miss Ida C. Dailimore, a stenographer in a plumbing house here, held three shares in her own and her sister's name, the other girl being a stenographer in the First National bank. The girls have reaped a harvest in one year of $3000 on an investment of $150. Amos Schring, president of the company, paid off a considerable mortgage on his real holdings here and in addition has retired with a good working capital. Deputy Sheriff Alva Sebring was also a considerable shareholder, and has received material dividends.

Gimlin's Pets Wipe Up the Ground With Colored Club.

The opening practice game between the Ogden Colts and the Assembly club (colored) today resulted in a victory for the fermer which could have been much greater if Father Gimlin had not put his pets through so much practice work during the progress of the game. It was in every respect a try-out and all the pitchers except Dowling, were put in the box. Tomorrow the Colts will meet the Cleaveland Commission team at Glenwood park, and the horse play will stop. The game will commence at 3 p. m. Gimlin tried out all of his pitchers today and all seemed to be in fine shape except Dowling, who has not had sufficient warm weather in which to warm up. The opening practice game between the

REACHES ACUTE PHASE.

Restraining Order Issued in Railroad Trouble.

An acute phase of the contest between An acute phase of the contest between the Denver & Rio Grande and the Oregon Short Line for the trackage privilege under the former company's franchise in the matter of laying tracks to the new big warehouse of the Simmons Hardware company became a matter of record this afternoon, when Manager E. E. Stewart of the company filed a complaint against the Oregon Short Line in which he allieges that his company is attempting to erect a warehouse to cost $5,000 on the corner of Wall avenue and Twenty-first street. That about March 15, 1905, the plaintiff gave permission to the defendant Oregon Short Line company and also to the Denver & Rio Grande company, to construct a siding or spur track along and upon twelve feet of ground on the westerly side of the plaintiff's property.

The complaint sets out that in violation of the covenants the defendant company so built its spur or siding so that it was a nulsance and has obstructed the same so it could not and cannot now be used for the purpose of moving material to be used in the construction of the building. That in spile of the protests of the plaintiff, defendant has refused and falled to remove the obstructions, and has threatened and still threatenes to hinder and obstruct the construction of said side track, so that plaintiff cannot comhe Denver & Rio Grande and the Oregon has threatened and still threatenes to hinder and obstruct the construction of said side track, so that plaintiff cannot complete the construction of said building, and the irreparable damage to the pigintiff is now $290.

At the same time a restraining order was issued by Judge Morse of the Third juddelal district, who handled the case in the absence of Judge Howell. The order restrains the defendant from obstructing the track in question and implies that the locomotive now standing there be removed that the car that has been ditched be removed and that free access to the track may be had by both parties.

The restraining order was served by Deputy Sheriff Belnap on General Agent W. H. Chevers of the Oregon Short Line, together with the affidavit and undertaking of Mr. Stewart, and a copy of the restraining order alone on George J. Cunningham, yardmaster of the Orden Union depot.

It is thought that the restraining order will be obeyed, but as it does not order that the present obstructions placed by the Short Line shall be removed, another order is looked for.

story. It means nothing greater than a traffic agreement covering the thirty-six miles between Ogden and Salt Lake. The saving in switching charges and coats of terminal handling is urged as the reason for the agreement. In this same connection it was stated here today by prominent authority that the remodeling and the rebuilding of Ogden yard and the construction of the Layton cut-off are all inter-related with the completion and the opening to traffic of the Salt Lake Route.

The impulsion of the Salt Lake Route as an element in the Ogden gateway question has given rise to new problems. The present entry of the Oregon Short Line destroys the value of the yard grounds for trackage purposes. With the increased number of trains consequent on the San Pedre running into Ogden, this difficulty would be increased. The only escape is to build the Layton cut-off.

HURT IN RUNAWAY.

The latest railroad story is to the effect that

O. O. Heffner of this city met with a very painful accident this afternoon. While trying to control a fractious horse the enimal gave two or three violent lunges and threw Heffner violently from the buggy onto the pavement. He was picked up unconscious and carried into the office of Drs. Rich and Rich, where it was discovered that be had sustained an urily gash over the right eye. The wound bled so profusely that it left a trail of blood from the scene of the accident to the office. While the injury is painful it is not serious, as there is no fracture of the skull. Heffner's horse dashed madly into a surrey driven by William and Franklin Hudson and overturned their conveyance. The Hudsons were knecked out into the street, but with the exception of a few bruises about the body, were not seriously hurt. Hudson's animal then ran madly to Twenty-fourth street and in turning the two or three violent lunges and threw Heffner

Receiver George Albert Smith of the United States Land office, son of apostle John Henry Smith, went through here today to Wellsville. Cache county, where he has been specially asigned to attend a special conference of the Wellsville ward. Elder Smith denied knowledge of the purpose of this special ward conference, but admitted that he had been several times invited to be present and this was the first opportunity in which he found the necessary time.

In regard to the recent reduction of the machinist and boiler-maker forces in the Southern Pacific shops, there appears to be little occasion for the excitement that has been attempted. It is true that forty-nine men were laid off, but their re-employment

French and German Steamers Supplying Rojestvensky's Fleet.

NEW YORK, April 22.-A dispatch from Salgon to a newspaper of this city asserts positively that the Russian second Pacific squadron was still in Kamranh bay on Friday. The correspondent says the Russian vessels, which number about fifty, are short of stores and that French and German steamers, including the Eva and Dagular, are carrying immense quantities of supplies from Saigon.

The steamer Gridan has been sold for $60,000 to be used for conveying stores, and another steamer has been chartered for the same purpose.

The British steamer Hindu is unload-ing coal at Saigon, adding to a store of 46,000 tons already accumulated by Russian agents. Five colliers will con-vey this fuel to the squadron. Another Russian squadron, consisting Another Russian squadron, consisting of seven battleships and cruisers (Vice-Admiral Nebogatoff's) is said to be expected hourly to join Rojestvensky. It is believed in Saigon that one portion of the Russian fleet will then go to meet the Japanese, while the other will make wide detour and endeavor to reach Vladivostok.

The names of several ships destroyed at Port Arthur, like the Bayan and Pallada will be repeated and a number of the ships will be named after deceased officers who distinguished themselves by individual exploits at Port Arthur mostly upon torpedo boats early in the war. One of the cruisers will be named Admiral Makar. If.

INSTRUCTIONS ARE EXPLICIT.

Rojestvensky Will Have No Excuse for Staying in French Waters.

PARIS, April 22, 1:35 p. m .- The Foreign office received advices from St. Petersburg this morning showing that the instructions sent to Admiral Rojestvensky are positive and explicit and that he must keep outside of French waters.

The nature of the instructions is said to be such that Rojestvensky must observe them by fully respecting French neutrality or else subject himself to punishment from his Government.

Therefore, the officials here feel that France has succeeded in securing the limit of what Japan can reasonably

Further official advices show that radical steps have been taken to pre-vent the Russian protected cruiser Diana, interned at Salgon after the naval battle of August 10, from putting to sea and resuming her active operations.
